Most Holy Trinity

Every time we make the sign of the Cross while blessing ourselves, we express our faith, calling upon the name of the Trinity. The action accompanying the words reminds us that it is through the cross of Jesus that the life of the Trinity is open to us, and that the cross is the only means by which we can follow Christ our Saviour into eternal life. –Desmond Knowles–

Corpus Christi Procession at St. Mary's Cathedral Sunday, June 2; following 10:30 am Mass

Please plan on joining in for what hopefully will become an annual event. It is customary in many Catholic countries to have a procession of the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ. We will take the Sacramental Lord in the monstrance and process around the outside of the cathedral, then pause for a moment of adoration on the steps of the cathedral and then process back into the cathedral for Benediction. It will all take about 20 minutes after Mass. Please join us as we publicly profess our Faith in the Real Presence of our Sacramental Lord in the Eucharist, Body, Mind, Soul and Divinity.

Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

On Sunday, June 2, a sung Mass will be celebrated at St. Francis of Assisi Church (incense will be used throughout), followed by exposition, procession, prayers for the deceased, litany of reparation to the Most Blessed Sacrament, and benediction.

Over these many years, belief in and reverence towards the Most Blessed Sacrament has diminished. I am inviting you to join me and my Parish today to give witness to our Lord and to the community at large that we still believe and adore Him in His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity present in the Blessed Sacrament.
